

As an American citizen by birth I consider it your job to INCREASE competition, not decrease it.

Power to the few, or power to the many? What is the basis of this country? Might make right?

Please remember who you are and what you represent when you make your decision. You will either build upon our foundation or be a part of destroying it.

Respectfully submitted (I hope)
Wayne M. Hynd